Dear Mr Archibald Craven,

~~Mr Archibald Craven, Mary Lenox~~ I am writing to you to inform you of Mary Lenox's departure to England. She will be ~~sent~~ ^{sent} going to you due to concerning ^{which} reasons. I will cover ~~it~~ later on in the letter.

To start this paragraph I shall ask you, what transport shall I expect for Mary Lenox when she ~~gets to~~ gets to England? Bus, Train, Taxi? I shall tell you what I expect, a perfectly ~~is~~ beautiful train, nothing more, nothing less. Now, I suppose you will want to know about ~~the~~ Mary. She is a disagreeable child of she has an ~~unusual~~ unusual complexion. She won't talk much but if she does happen to, it is usually rude. I don't want to put a downer on your doorstep but she really is an unruly child and I ~~do~~ do not think there is a chance you will warm up to her. ~~There~~ is no long ^{or} ~~and~~ ^{story about} ~~shot~~ off it, she is displeasable. ~~Now~~, her parents. Her parents died ~~of~~ of cholera when she was nine years of ~~age~~ age, if you didn't already know what cholera is, it is a fatal disease. Right now Mary is living with ^{the Cleggyman} ~~her~~ ^{his} ~~her~~ ^{his} wife and ~~his~~ ^{his} kids. She is a new one and we ~~do not~~ ~~are~~ not putting up with it anymore.

In conclusion, Mary Lenox will be sent to you on the 11th October. You shall do ~~as~~ what you must ~~do~~ ^{at} she ~~is~~ ^{is} legally yours. With that, I shall end this letter.

Yours Sincerely,
AC Colonel Mc Grew.
